First issued during WWII. In the hands of trained snipers, the Mosin-Nagant was instrumental in turning back the Nazi invasion. The M91/30 went on to become the standard sniper rifle of the Eastern Bloc and can still be encountered in some parts of the world. Originally issued in limited quantities, we've created a functional and authentic sniper version by fitting modified M91/30 rifles with original Soviet 3.5X PU Series scopes. Barrel: 72.4cm. (28.5") 4 Groove RH, Overall: 122cm. (48"). Weight: 5 kgs. (11.3 lbs.).
